

Grades 6-8

Mathematics for All Students

As the above model reflects, Principles describe particular features of a high-quality mathematics program and serve as the foundation for Content Standards and Process Standards. Process Standards outline the methods through which students attain the mathematical knowledge, skills, and conceptual understandings set forth in the Content Standards.